September 21, 2010

8:00 am — 4:00 pm

1900 K Street, NW
Washington, DC 20006

As the capital needs of the federal government are better understood, the issue of federal budget scoring procedures has become a point of discussion amongst policy makers within the Administration and on Capitol Hill. Simultaneously, the modification of FASBI 13 will impact scoring issues in both the public and private sectors. This Summit will provide an opportunity for industry professionals from all sectors to discuss viable options and the next best steps forward.

Program will feature:

- Key Congressional staff from Senate and House Committees on Armed Services, Budget
- Government Services Administration
- Office of Management and Budget
- Key federal agencies, such as DOD, VA
- An authority on FASBI 13 modifications
Leading private sector financiers
